

CT FIRE CHIEFS ASSOCIATION

36 Cedar Drive, Southington, CT 06489

www.connecticutfirechiefs.com

---

The November 26, 2019 meeting of the Connecticut Fire Chiefs was held at A Villa Louisa in Bolton.

Meeting was called to order at 19:10.

Invocation was given.

Chief Dixon was introduced and he welcomed all to Bolton. He introduced members of his department and the First Selectman Sandra Pierog welcomed all and gave some remarks.

A motion was made and passed to suspend meeting for dinner at 19:20

A motion was made and passed to reconvene meeting at 20:15

A motion was made and passed to accept the secretary's report.

Committee reports: Fred Dudek reported that the grant is over, the everyday hero's website has been updated and will be on line until December 31. The Class at Burville had 22 to 24 people. The University of Connecticut did a public service announcement of 30, 60 and 90 seconds. We will apply for another grant as soon as the period opens and the committee has some ideas of what went wrong and how to change that.

Peter Beckwith is no longer secretary for the Flanagan Fund he has been replaced by Chip Jordon. Peter served the fund for over 15 years.

Ted Schroll has been appointed to temporarily replace Leon Collins as the legislative representative

Keven Cooney reported on the Chaplin Corpse and they are making progress.

Chuck Flynn reported on the New England Association of Fire Chiefs and they are making progress on combining the two New England Chief Groups. There should be a vote in Worcester next year and all members of both associations are urged to attend. Symposium in the Sun was another huge success.

---

Ed Urbanski reported from the memorial committee.

Outgoing President Nick Wallick thanked everyone for their help over the last year, especially the board of directors.

Old Business: None

New Business: A motion was made and passed that the dues for active members be increased to $60.00 and dues for non-active members be $40.00

Tim Wall swore in G. Schaffer, F. Dudek, J. DiPace and R. McDonough as officers for the upcoming year.

He then swore in R. Duval and M. Worsman as first and second vice-presidents

President Dixon was sworn in by his wife Bernice, the former town clerk of Bolton.

New President of the Association Bruce Dixon made some remarks thanking his wife, and family and then introduced the officers of his department.

Correspondence: None

Good of the association: None

64 people were in attendance

Cost of the meal $30.00

$155.00 was collected for the Flanagan Fund.

Respectfully submitted

Richard McDonough
Secretary

---